AEMA Membership Qualifications

Any person, firm or corporation with an interest in the Private Residence Elevator and Accessibility Equipment Industry is eligible to become a full voting member of the AEMA Association. This includes manufacturers, equipment users, architects, building owners, code writers, regulatory authorities, accessibility contractors, industry associations, government and others. (See the following excerpt from the bylaws.)

Excerpt from the AEMA Bylaws

The term "Private Residence Elevator and Accessibility Equipment" industry includes the design, manufacture, installation, servicing and maintenance of vertical, inclined and horizontal conveying systems which are used primarily to provide access and/or egress for persons in public and private residential environments, commonly known as platform lifts, stair-lifts, wheelchair lifts, access elevators, private residence elevators, stairway chairlifts, limited use/limited application elevators and similar products.

AEMA Code of Ethical Practices

- Be it resolved that we will conduct our business affairs in such a manner that they will be fair to all parties concerned.
- And further resolved, that we distribute only products which reflect good quality, safety and best engineering practices for all given applications.
- And further resolved, that we will respect our competitors deserving of our respect.
- And further resolved, that we will refrain from being derogatory.
- And further resolved, that we will always uphold the high standards and purposes of AEMA.
- And further resolved, that we will refuse to be a part to any of the following: price fixing, collusion, monopoly, non-code compliance, deviation from specifications, after quoting, knowingly endorsing members of this or any other trade association if they are not qualified or are known to be unethical or dishonest.

Membership Dues

- Initiation Fee (to promote membership growth, we are currently waiving our Initiation Fee for this calendar year) US $0
- Annual Dues (per calendar year) US $199.00
- Note: Dues payments to AEMA are deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses for income tax purposes; however, dues payments are not deductible as charitable contributions
